Repercusión del plan del Reino Unido de enviar solicitantes de asilo a Ruanda

El plan del Gobierno del Reino Unido de enviar solicitantes de asilo a Ruanda ha sido descrito como una "reacción por impulso" a la migración por el viceprimer ministro de Irlanda y se ha advertido de que puede haber una afluencia de solicitantes de asilo en Irlanda como resultado. Micheál Martin, el Tánaiste (viceprimer ministro) de Irlanda, ha informado de que los solicitantes de asilo que temen ser retirados del Reino Unido a Ruanda están buscando refugio en Irlanda. Irlanda está acogiendo a más de 100.000 refugiados, la mayoría de ellos de Ucrania. Dicha afluencia se ha producido coincidiendo con una grave crisis de vivienda que ha provocado el aumento de los alquileres y el número de personas sin hogar y ha avivado los sentimientos antiinmigratorios. Un motín en noviembre causó estragos en el centro de Dublín.

Martin, que es también el ministro de Asuntos Exteriores de Irlanda, ha declarado que los solicitantes de asilo buscan "refugio aquí y dentro de la Unión Europea en lugar de Potencialmente ser deportados a Ruanda".

Críticas al plan del Reino Unido

Durante una visita a Jordania el miércoles, Martin declaró: "Tenemos once millones de personas desplazadas de Ucrania y millones en Sudán. Pero considero que este tipo de reacción por impulso, como la política de Ruanda, no va a resolver de verdad el problema".

Sus comentarios, reportados en el Daily Telegraph, se produjeron después de que el proyecto de ley de Ruanda, que permitirá la deportación de solicitantes de asilo que llegaron al Reino Unido por vías irregulares a Kigali, recibiera la sanción real y fuera promulgado como la Ley de Seguridad de Ruanda.

El presidente de Francia, Emmanuel Macron, criticó anteriormente esta semana las políticas de migración que implican el envío de personas a países africanos como una "traición de nuestros valores". El presidente francés hizo estas observaciones en un discurso amplio el jueves en el que advertía a Europa contra la sobredependencia de otros países en materia de seguridad y comercio.

En cuanto a la migración, manifestó que no cree "en este modelo que algunas personas quieren poner en práctica, que consiste en ir a buscar un tercer país, por ejemplo en Africa, y enviar a nuestros inmigrantes allí".

Impacto y coste del acuerdo con Ruanda

El trato con Ruanda costará 1,8 millones de libras por cada uno de los primeros 300 deportados, según ha confirmado la Oficina Nacional de Auditoría.

Matthew Rycroft, el funcionario de más alto rango del Ministerio del Interior que ha supervisado el esquema durante dos años, declaró anteriormente a los diputados que no disponía de pruebas que demostraran que el esquema tenía un efecto disuasorio que lo hiciera coste-efectivo.

El personal del Ministerio del Interior ha advertido en privado del riesgo de que miles de solicitantes de asilo desaparezcan una vez que comiencen las devoluciones, ya que desean evitar recibir la notificación de que van a ser enviados a Kigali.
