The Brazil national futsal team represents Brazil during international futsal competitions. It is under the direction of the Brazilian Football Confederation (CBF).[a] The team is considered to be the strongest in the world earning a record three straight championships in the FIFA Futsal World Cup. Brazil also holds a record twelve championship wins in the South American Futsal Championship also known as the Copa América de Futsal and five wins in the Taça América de Futsal. As of November 2024, Brazil is ranked first in the Futsal World Rankings. Brazil has played in all FIFA Futsal World Cups and has finished in the top three places eight times, which includes the recent Futsal World Cup in 2024.

History [edit]

FIFA Era [edit]

Ever since the early days of the FIFA Futsal World Cup, Brazil have been a force to be reckoned with on the international scene. The Auriverde claimed the trophy at the first three editions of the showpiece event, at Netherlands 1989, Hong Kong 1992 and Spain 1996, but were outstripped by their futsal bête noire, Spain. La Furia Roja proved to be too strong for Brazil in the Final of Guatemala 2000 and at the semi-final stage of Taiwan 2004, where they went on to take the title once more. Brazil won their 4th and 5th titles in Brazil 2008 and Thailand 2012, beating Spain in the finals of these two editions respectively. They are known for defeating East Timor 76–0 in the 2006 Lusophony Games in Macau.

Biden y los demócratas atacan a Trump en el aniversario de la decisión del tribunal supremo que anuló Roe v Wade

Buenos días, lectores del blog de política de EE.UU. Hoy se cumplen dos años de la decisión del tribunal supremo en el caso Dobbs v Jackson Women's Health Organization, que anuló el precedente de 49 años establecido en Roe v Wade y permitió a los estados prohibir el aborto. Desde entonces, los defensores de los derechos reproductivos han tenido éxito al conseguir que los votantes aprueben medidas que protejan el acceso al procedimiento en estados tan conservadores como Kansas y Ohio, mientras que los candidatos demócratas en todo el país han hecho campaña en favor de los derechos reproductivos para ganar cargos. Ahora, el partido busca mantener ese impulso hacia las elecciones presidenciales de noviembre, con la mirada puesta en dirigir el enojo de los votantes a favor del aborto hacia Donald Trump – quien nombró a tres de los jueces del tribunal que apoyaron la decisión Dobbs.

"Hace dos años, la mayoría del tribunal supremo de Donald Trump arrebató la libertad fundamental de las mujeres para acceder a los cuidados de salud que necesitan y merecen", dijo Joe Biden en un comunicado publicado esta mañana para conmemorar la ocasión. Mientras permanece en retiro en el retiro presidencial de Camp David antes del debate con Trump el jueves, Kamala Harris celebrará un evento de campaña hoy en Maryland, donde seguramente abordará el tema.

A continuación, lo que está sucediendo hoy:

- Trump continuó con su táctica de hacer campaña en ciudades del interior durante el fin de semana, celebrando su primer mitin en Filadelfia con un discurso que se centró en culpar a los migrantes indocumentados por la delincuencia, sin importarle los hechos.
 - El matrimonio entre personas del mismo sexo, que está protegido por una decisión del tribunal supremo y también por una ley federal recientemente aprobada, sigue siendo popular en general, aunque su apoyo está disminuyendo entre los republicanos, según una encuesta de Gallup.
 - Tanto la Cámara de Representantes como el Senado no están en sesión hoy, pero la cámara baja regresará mañana, con una mayoría republicana centrada en aprobar proyectos de gastos que probablemente contengan varias demandas de extrema derecha para ser utilizadas como fichas de negociación con los demócratas.
