How to Start Playing

I actually found it incredibly easy to get started – if you follow the exclusive bonus link (Wagering and T&Cs apply) in this review you'll see a screen where it says 'Join Now', click here and then simply fill in your registration details. You'll only need to share your details e.g. name, address, contact number etc. If however, you haven't opted in for the bonus offer and you've come across bet365 Casino on your own then you'll see in the top right of the screen a yellow 'Join Now' will hopefully jump out at you, click on that and then you'll be one step closer to playing.

Once all this is complete you're able to deposit your hard earned funds, or you can at the very least start sampling what the casino is all about in terms of games and jackpots. For me, despite there only being a minimum deposit required to opt-in for the bonus offer, I decided to deposit in two stages, one for the offer and another unrestricted by the turnover requirement, so that I could play freely and just for fun to get a real flavour for the casino. This might very well be a good idea for you too, spread your other deposit around on some slots and table games and see what works for you.

If you want to experience the 'full' offering, then I would recommend downloading the bet365 Casino software onto your computer. You'll see the 'Download Now' prompt on the home screen and in various parts throughout the casino.

Please note that you don't have to download any casino software if you're playing via a mobile or tablet device to experience more gaming options.

bet365 Casino Review

They say that first impressions are always important. There's a part of us all that makes quick decisions based on what we see within those first few seconds. From my own viewpoint though, scanning through the layout of bet365 Casino's front page, my initial impression is that I would say this is a site that wants to be taken seriously. Why? The site's design and colours are easy for the eye to quickly scan through all available options, with dark green and black background making all the available options pop-out quite clearly. I very much like the fact that within one scroll down I'm already fully aware that there are games there to play right away, a bonus to take advantage of, and the navigation along the left-hand side featuring slot, card and table games. Keep scrolling down and you'll find all the available features listed clearly, including all the games that you can play online.

By just looking at the site before playing, would I be sold as a new player to return or sign up there and then? Absolutely, but some may not like how clinical the site looks compared to a casino like Winner Casino, which really plays on brighter colours and a 'fun feel'. However, I'd argue that bet365 Casino plays up to its tag of being a quality option, appealing to more advanced players, but at the same time, the site makes it super easy for new players to find their way and start playing quickly.

Besides the flashy and fun looking slot machines available to you, you'll also find a great selection of classic table and card games, and this is another reason for us awarding the casino with a prestigious 5-star review.

Here you will find roulette games and blackjack games that we'll go into more detail about below, note that you can also play Casino Hold'em and video poker at the casino too. There's definitely a feeling that they are catering to the modern player as well as respecting the traditional values that players have grown accustomed to.

Play bet365 Casino Blackjack

If you're new to playing blackjack or haven't played it in a while, then playing it here is the perfect place. In short, to win at blackjack you must beat the dealer by getting 21. The game is played with 1-8 sets of a standard card deck, without jokers. Picture cards are worth 10, aces count 1 or 11 and the rest of the cards count their own value.

There are different variants of the game, but with blackjack, you can only play the regular game. If you download their casino, however, you can both play regular blackjack and Perfect Blackjack.

Play bet365 Casino Roulette

Did you know that Roulette is named after the French word for "small wheel"? When in the game you'll see a wheel spun in one direction, while a ball will be dropped and spun in the opposite direction in a direction. There are a couple of types of wheels, with a different number of holes (coloured and numbered) for the ball to drop into – 37 (European roulette) or 38 (American roulette). Depending on whether you have bet on the number or the colour that the ball lands in, you will win or you lose.

With roulette you can play on the classic version of the game on the website. In the downloaded version, however, you can play European Roulette, Roulette Pro as well as Roulette Pro Class.

bet365 Live Casino Review

For those of you that would like experience the 'real deal feel' of the casino, but not actually be there, then you're in luck as bet365 Live Casino does a pretty good job in giving its players an authentic casino experience.

In bet365 Live Casino feel the tension and excitement levels rise immediately. You can both play blackjack, baccarat and roulette against live dealers (via live streaming cameras), you'll soon realise how much more authentic and competitive this form of online gameplay feels compared to just playing against a 'screen'.

All prompts, such as when the game is open to bets and closed to bets, are relayed clearly by the real-life dealers and if you win you'll often be congratulated by the dealer(s).

bet365 launches Lotto365 powered by 49's

SIS (Sports Information Services), the leading multi-channel supplier of 24/7 live betting services, has strengthened its long-term bet365 partnership with the creation of Lotto365, the operator's new online lottery offering.

Image: July 2024.

The world's biggest operator entrusted SIS, owner of the 49's Live Numbers brand, to build and operate its new Lotto365 offer, with the 24/7 live betting specialist developing an exclusive live draws product to anchor bet365's overall lottery offer.

Lotto365 delivers a live draw every five minutes 23 hours every day, which is created and streamed from SIS' broadcast studios in Milton Keynes. The 'pick five from 36' format provides players with the chance to win up to £100,000 from just a £1 stake when all five numbers are correctly drawn, whilst there are also many smaller prizes up for grabs, even if only one matching ball is revealed. In addition, the live product offers customers the ability to bet on markets such as the colours of balls drawn, which are yellow, white, and green in-line with bet365's existing branding, as well as odd/even numbers.

bet365 Casino Customer Support

When it comes to dealing with a player's problem, the casino offers an all-around customer service.

There are plenty of other options available to you if you need support, but of course, certain methods will require more waiting time. I will gladly offer feedback of my own at this point, in saying that the live chat assistants were pretty prompt and friendly in their replies. On a couple of occasions, I was waiting for no more than a minute for a reply, and the answers that I got back regarding bonuses and number of casino games were simple but knowledgeable. Quality customer service should always be a key indicator to how good a casino is, and whether or not it's worth your long-term investment. Yes, bet365 Casino can always improve here, but from what I've heard, I'd definitely suggest if you have any problems or queries then don't hesitate to ask them via their live chat function.

You can also send them a postal message or a fax message, you can find those details on site.

bet365 Bookmaker

As bet365 is one of the most popular brands in this region, and maybe around the globe, it is no wonder that it also has a sports betting section. The mere existence of this segment is not as surprising as what it has to offer. That said, bettors will be able to choose from a large variety of sports events.

And more, the number of markets here is impressive. With some competitive odds and multiple betting options, bet365 Bookmaker deservedly takes the spot in the group of the most popular operators. Another reason why this is so is related to the possibility of selecting a sports promotion.

bet365 Casino FAQ

We here at bettingexpert are always trying to make life easier for our readers when it comes to transparency and what each casino can offer you.
