Quando se fala em cassino, é comum pensarmos em diversão, emoção e, claro, em apostas. No entanto, é importante conhecer as regras e limites de cada jogo antes de se aventurar neste mundo. Neste artigo, vamos falar sobre um assunto importante: qual é a aposta máxima no cassino

Apostas máximas no cassino: o que é?

Cada jogo de cassino tem suas regras e limites, incluindo os valores máximos que podem ser apostados em cada rodada ou partida. Esses valores variam de acordo com o tipo de jogo, se é um jogo eletrônico ou presencial, e até mesmo de acordo com o cassino em que você está.

Cientos de manifestantes protestan en la conferencia de desarrolladores de Google por los vínculos de la empresa con proyectos militares israelíes

Cientos de manifestantes pro-palestinos se encadenaron frente a la entrada de la conferencia anual de desarrolladores de Google el martes en protesta por los vínculos de la empresa con proyectos militares israelíes. Miles de asistentes que esperaban ingresar a Google I/O fueron redirigidos a otra entrada, y el evento comenzó a tiempo.

Los grupos, que incluyen la coalición No Tech for Genocide y otros grupos de toda el Área de la Bahía, sostenían un letrero que decía "Google deténgase para financiar el genocidio". Cantaron "no pararemos hasta que Nimbus sea abandonado", en referencia a un proyecto de R$ 1.2 mil millones apoyado por Amazon y Google que brinda servicios de inteligencia artificial y computación en la nube al gobierno israelí.

Hablando ante la multitud, un manifestante dijo que las personas se habían reunido en Mountain View para asistir a la conferencia anual altamente anticipada de Google, pero que los manifestantes estaban allí para compartir "la verdadera historia".

Google tiene previsto anunciar actualizaciones importantes de sus productos en la conferencia de hoy, la mayoría de ellos centrados en IA.

Manifestantes acusan a Google de financiar "genocidio"

"Lo que no oírán hoy de los oradores es que en este momento, mientras estoy de pie aquí frente a ustedes, el estado de Israel está utilizando la tecnología de Google para ejecutar el primer genocidio alimentado por IA de la historia", dijeron.

Un número de asistentes eran empleados actuales y anteriores de la empresa, incluida Ariel Koren, una exempleada de Google que afirma que fue empujada fuera de la empresa en 2024 por hablar en contra del proyecto Nimbus.

Dijo que contratos como Nimbus han permitido "el primer genocidio habilitado por IA de la historia". Los manifestantes se oponen a tal tecnología, que afirman que se está probando en Gaza, pero es probable que se replique en otros lugares en el futuro.

"Estamos aquí para decir que no podemos quedarnos de brazos cruzados mientras esta empresa financia este genocidio y obtiene ganancias de él", dijo.

"[Google] no solo crea la infraestructura para que el ejército israelí amplíe sus crímenes contra la humanidad, sino que estas herramientas se están probando y capacitando en Palestina para ser exportadas a los ejércitos de todo el mundo, quienes pueden luego cometer los mismos tipos de violencia", dijo. "Podríamos estar viendo el primer genocidio alimentado por IA. Pero lo que Google está tratando de hacer es garantizar que esto no sea el último".

Docenas de manifestantes adicionales se reunieron más adelante en las calles que conducen al evento, gritando: "Google no puedes esconderte, estás cometiendo genocidio". Repartieron folletos dirigidos a los empleados de Google, instándolos a hablar en contra de los contratos militares de la empresa.

El mes pasado, Google despidió a más de 50 trabajadores por participar en una protesta pro palestina que vio a los ocupantes de Google campus en la ciudad de Nueva York y Sunnyvale, California. En 2024, la empresa vio huelgas masivas de empleados por su manejo de acoso sexual.
