Porto vence Vitória e se aproxima da final da Taça de Portugal

O Porto se approaches the final of the Taça de Portugal after defeating Vitória de Guimarães 1-0 at the Estádio Afonso Henriques in Guimarães. Pepê scored the winning goal for the Dragons, giving them a vital away win in the first leg of the semifinal. The game was marked by a strong tackle between Jorge Sánchez and Ricardo Mangas that forced the referee Nuno Almeida to interrupt the game for 8 minutes. Despite few clear goal-scoring opportunities, the Porto managed to be efficient in the second half, and Pepê confirmed the advantage for the second leg. With this result, the Porto is one step away from facing the Sporting, who won the other semifinal by defeating Benfica 2-1 at home, at the Estádio Alvalade. The Leão secured the draw in the second leg with a 2-2 draw at the Estádio da Luz, advancing with an aggregate score of 4-3. Benfica is the most successful team in the Taça de Portugal, with 26 titles. Porto is the second, with 19 titles, while Sporting completes the top 3 with 17 trophies.
